Beecher's Money.

One of the mysteries of the age is what Henry Ward Beecher has done with his money. At one time he was in receipt of $20,000 from his church, $10,000 from his newspaper, $20,000 from his lecturing and $10,000 from marriage fees, literary works and his books, making a total of $60,000 a year. Yet Beecher never had any money to spare. His household was modest, not expensive; his wife was apparently not extravagant; he gave nothing that was known to charity, and yet he was always impecunious. When he wanted to help Tilton he gave a mortgage upon his house, and now he has sold his house, furniture and buildings and gone to live with a married son. He told me he did this because the young birds had all grown up and flown out of the nest, and yet it was a marvel that in his old age he should leave his comfortable home upon the Heights of Brooklyn and go into narrow quarters as a boarder. He spoke with a sigh and very evident regret at the breaking up of his old house. This was strange, but the unfinished story in regard to his farmer, Thomas Turner, at Peek-skill, is still more strange. When Turner died Mr. Beecher took charge of his papers, and burned a large number of them, among which, it is alleged, were a number of promissory notes. The whole thing has a queer look, and the question which agitates newspaper men is where has all the money he has made in the last century, amounting to millions, gone to? Perhaps it is one of those mysteries that no fellow can find out, but the curiosity of the natural man will prompt him to find out the undiscovered channel through which it flows.—Philadelphia Record.

Planning Work.

Even in housework the brain may save the body a great deal of labor. A woman who plans her work beforehand always accomplishes a good deal more than her less-methodical sister, and with less fatigue to herself. Before she rises in the morning her breakfast is thoroughly planned, and the order in which the different details are to be carried out is quite decided upon. It makes all work easier to have it thus planned beforehand, and many a weary woman might secure many bright half hours to herself every week if she would but inaugurate the system. It is just like packing a trunk—you know how easy it is for one skilled in the business to put in a third more than one who piles things in "just as it happens." It is always such a pleasure to look back on a well-packed day and see just what has been done. People whose days are full of idleness and ease do not have a monopoly of happiness by any means. Those who have nothing to do except to make themselves comfortable are generally peevish and discontented. Work has manifold advantages; and the woman who has led a busy life cannot be content to rest in idleness.

"Don't Cross a Bridge Until You Come to It."

There was once a man and woman who planned to spend a day at a friend's house, which was some miles distant from their own. So, one pleasant morning, they started out to make the visit; but they had not gone far before the woman remembered a bridge they had to cross which was very old and unsafe, and she began to worry about it. "What shall we do about the bridge?" she said to her husband. "I shall never dare to go over it, and we can't cross the river any other way." "Oh," said the man, "I forgot that bridge; it's a bad place. Suppose it should break through. We should be drowned." "Or suppose you should step on a rotten plank and break your leg, what would become of me and the baby?" "I don't know," said the man, "what would become of any of us, for I couldn't work, and we should starve to death." So they went on worrying till they got to the bridge, when lo and behold! since they had been there last a new bridge had been built, and they crossed over in safety, and found they might as well have saved themselves all their anxiety.

What Some Women Could Do.

There are women to-day in San Francisco, says the Chronicle of that city, subsisting on scanty crusts in blind alleys who could step into the empty mansions of our new millionaires and arrange the appointments of room after room of the entire house with an artistic sense and individuality of taste which would put to the blush the first upholsterer of the city. The day is not far distant when this will become a distinct calling for women. The originality of conception and design manifested by women wherever their artistic powers are allowed a chance for development will lead to many new paths for industrious womanhood.

The Wagon-Load of Bread.

A party of soldiers, during the late civil war, found themselves one night on a battle-field in charge of a great many wounded soldiers, who, by reason of the sudden retreat of the army, were left wholly without shelter or supplies. Having done their best for the poor fellows—bringing them water from a distant brook, and searching the harvest-sacks of the dead for rations—they began to say to themselves and to one another: "These weak and wounded men must have food or they will die. The army is out of reach, and there is no village for many miles; what are we to do?"

"Pray to God to send us bread," said one.

That night, in the midst of the dead and dying, they held a little prayer-meeting, telling the Lord all about the case, and begging Him to send them bread immediately; though from whence it could come they had not the most remote idea. All night long they plied their work for mercy. With the first ray of dawn the sound of an approaching wagon caught their ears; and presently, through the mists of the morning, appeared a great Dutch farm wagon, piled to the very top with loaves of bread.

On asking the driver where he came from, and who sent him, he replied: "When I went to bed last night I knew that the army was gone, and I could not sleep for thinking of the poor fellows who always have to stay behind. Something seemed to say to me: 'What will those poor fellows do for something to eat?' It came to me so strong that I waked up my old wife, and told her what was the matter. We had only a little bread in the house, and while my wife was making some more I took my team and went round to all my neighbors, making them get up and give me all the bread in their houses, telling them it was for the wounded soldiers on the battle field. When I got home my wagon was full; my wife piled her baking on the top, and I started off to bring the bread to the boys, feeling just as if the Lord Himself were sending me." Kind Words.

DEATH IN THE COFFEE POT.—The public are cautioned against purchasing imported California ground coffee. Its cheapness is its only recommendation. The ingredients are of the vilest description, as anyone using it will discover should he examine the grounds. During the perihelia of the planets people should be careful what they eat and drink. Don't allow your grocer to palm off his trash upon you, because it pays him better to sell it than the good article. Ask for FELL & Co.'s Coffee and take no other. *

THIS is an advertisement and contains neither oil nor taffy. It simply refers to KURTZ'S OWN cigars made of the best Havana tobacco, and manipulated by WHITE LABOR ONLY. Our brands are now firmly established and the quality will be strictly maintained. KURTZ & Co. *

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

Advice to Invalids—If you wish to obtain quiet, refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media, and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by Dr. J. Collis Browne (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5th, 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell street, Bloomsbury, London. Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a DELIBERATE BREACH OF FAITH ON THE PART OF THE CHEMIST TO PRESCRIBER AND PATIENT ALIKE. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the Inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which, he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See "The Times," July 13, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9., 4s 6d. and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Caution—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.

Another Plot to Kill the Czar

HORRID OCCURANCES IN THE UNITED STATES

GENERAL NEWS FROM ALL PARTS.

EUROPE.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—During the celebration of high mass in the church of the Holy Cross a man was seized while picking a pocket. In order to effect his escape the culprit shouted fire, and immediately a great panic seized the congregation, who rushed for the door, and during the confusion twelve women were injured. The pickpocket was soundly beaten by the crowd. The culprit is a Jew. The lower classes of the people are much excited against the Jews, several of whom have been maltreated and had the windows of their dwellings broken. The military had to be called out. A later dispatch states that so far thirty have died of injuries received during the panic in the church. Four shops kept by Jews were completely gutted. Several policemen were injured by the rioters. The authorities displayed great promptitude in suppressing the disorder, and military are patrolling disturbed quarters.

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—One news association says the riot resulting from the arrest in church of a Jewish pickpocket was in Warsaw, not London, as a press dispatch had it. Another report gives the place as St. Petersburg. The thief was also said to be a woman.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—A dispatch from Warsaw reports the deaths so far from the panic in the church of the Holy Cross, Christmas morning, number forty. Sixty other persons were injured. A dispatch from Cracow states the persons killed were mostly women.

WARSAW, Dec. 26.—Very serious rioting ensued Sunday after the panic. Most of the Jewish liquor shops and many Jewish houses were sacked. The police were powerless, and in several cases policeman assisted in plundering dram shops. Six hundred arrests have been made.

LONDON, Dec. 25.—Gladstone, replying to a correspondent who had called attention to the fact that bands of Mormon missionaries visit Great Britain annually, driving thousands of young persons to a life of immorality in Utah, and inquired if the government could not do something to prevent the practice, says he fears it is not a matter in which he can interfere, as it is to be presumed the young persons go voluntarily.

Rev. John Davies, who preached yesterday in Chapel Royal at St. James' Palace, said: "One of the events for which the present year will be memorable is the appearance of a revised edition of the New Testament. The eager demand for the work among the Anglo-Saxon community was an exceptional event in history. The greatness of the future of this nation belongs to the republic of the United States, and it is there where the work was awaited with most universal patience."

The police have obtained an important clue in the case of stealing the body of the Earl of Crawford and Balcarres. They expect to make arrests shortly.

VIENNA, Dec. 25.—A telegram from St. Petersburg reports the whole naval port of Cronstadt on fire. One quarter of this town is reported already destroyed. Loss enormous. The fire is believed to be the work of nihilists.

LONDON, Dec. 25.—No news direct from Cronstadt yet received here concerning the reported great fire.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—The "Daily News" on the Guiteau trial says: While the court seems to exist for the convenience and self-glorification of Guiteau, it is made a burlesque Whilst Guiteau is the person of first consideration, the judge seems to be of the last. Guiteau is forbearing, even friendly, towards the judge, so long as the latter does not assert his authority. On Scoville he heaps the most opprobrious and insulting epithets, but in the steady, quiet persistence of Corkhill, in his unruffled temper and quietly dignified manner, Guiteau has found his overmastering force.

According to intelligence from St. Petersburg, great indignation prevails there at the reprehensible conduct of the president of administration in Eastern Siberia, who refused to telegraph the announcement of the arrival of the Jeannette survivors because they were without funds. The first news of their escape was consequently delayed ten weeks.

DUBLIN, Dec. 26.—The sustenance fund for political prisoners now amounts to £9,000. It is understood suspects imprisoned in Kilmainham jail will henceforth receive one substantial meal per day.

Catholic priests are circulating in Ireland copies of Bishop Nulty's letters to priests in his diocese and others, stating that the land is common property to all.

DUBLIN, Dec. 26.—The privy council determined to proclaim Dublin anew making it illegal to possess arms without a license.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 25.—A plot has been discovered for assassinating the czar in Karavanian street, which it was expected he would traverse while proceeding from the palace to Michael riding school on the occasion of the recent fete. At a meeting of revolutionists in the outskirts of town, from information which the police possesses, it was authoritatively stated that nothing could have saved the life of the czar had he passed along the street when expected.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 26.—The "Official Messsenger" announces that the emperor has decided that 23 of the recently arrested political criminals, believed to be leaders or principal members of the territorial party, shall be tried together before a special sitting of the senate, at which representatives of local communal assemblies are to be present.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 25. — The Italian government is considering the question of more efficiently giving Italian guarantees of liberty and indepen dence to the popo in Rome, in order to prevent all foreign interference tending to give law guarantees an international character.

PARIS, Dec. 26.—Gen. Jean August Berthaul is dead.

VIENNA, Dec. 26.—The Emperor resolved to erect at his own cost a memorial chapel on the site of the Ring Theatre, in which requiem mass may be celebrated yearly for the victims of the fire.

BERLIN, Dec. 26.—Emigration from Germany in 1882 promises to become more colossal than in 1881. Fourteen thousand tickets have already been taken for transportation by vessels leaving Bremen for America in the spring. An almost equal number go from Hamburg.

Customs officials have contrived to double and treble the tax on many kinds of imported provisions, by taxing wrappers and labels as essential parts of the consignment. Thus American corned beef in tins is taxed as "fine ironwares."

LONDON, Dec. 23.—The "Pall Mall Gazette" believes it substantially true that the government has divided the disturbed localities in Ireland into five or six districts, each of which is to be under a superior sort of magistrate who will be able to act without previous superior sanction and have entire control of troops and police in event of disturbance.

EASTERN STATES.

NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—Losses by the fire in the U. S. bonded warehouse, occupied by Moore, Wood & Co., are estimated at about $2,500,000. The principal losers are W. F. Milton & Co., Westmore, Crider & Co., F. Garcia & Bros., Antonia Gonzales, M. & E. Solomon (whose loss is estimated at $300,000), and Clement, Herd & Co., (whose loss is said to be $150,000, Firemen have been arrested on suspicion of trying to break into a safe.

About 2000 people assembled in the American Institute Rink to witness the beginning of the six day go-as-you-please walking match for the championship of the world. At 12 m. the following started: Frank Hart, Fred Kehone, Harry Howard, Patrick Fitzgerald, Ben Curran, John Cox, John Ennis, L. Laconz, A. Elson, D. J. Hart, P. Edwards, A. P. Curtis, M. Normac, M. Walde and B. Gettings.

JERSEY CITY, Dec. 26.—Joseph McLeary, who was recently sent to St. Francis' hospital for alcoholism, was seized with the worst form of black smallpox, and refusing to go to the pest house was allowed to go home. A friend persuaded him to go to the police station and helped him along through the streets. The police, on hearing of his approach, barred the doors, and the man was deposited on the sidewalk where he died and was soon surrounded by a large crowd, mostly children. A cloth was laid over his face, but was several times lifted by curious children. The friend who was with him was locked up for trying to get into the station to see officers.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—Scarlet fever is increasing in this city at an alarming rate. According to returns it is unusually malignant. For the week ending December 17th 244 cases were reported and 64 deaths recorded.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Dec. 26.—Dr. C. H. Rosenhauer, a prominent physician, was assassinated at his residence, nine miles from Pine Bluffs, Saturday evening. The assassin fired through the window with a double barrel shot gun and lodged fifteen buckshot in the victim's body. Suspicion points to Lee Chow, a Chinese laundryman, as the guilty party. A few months ago Lee Chow was married to a beautiful but ignorant girl named Estelle Smith. Shortly after the marriage he and his wife left here and settled in Dr. Rosenhauer's neighborhood. An intimacy soon sprung up between the doctor and the Chinaman's wife and she forsook her husband and took up her residence at the doctor's house. Subsequently Chow persuaded her to leave the doctor and return to him. Together they came to this city, followed last week by the doctor. He accused the woman of taking money and valuables from him when she left, became very violent and was arrested and fined in the police court. He immediately left the city and returned home, where he remained until assassinated. The doctor came here from Maryland, where he has a family.

ASHLAND, N. Y., Dec. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gibbons, who reside near town, went to meeting Friday night, leaving a daughter 14 years old. Miss Emma Thomas, 17 years old, and a son, Robert Gibbons, at the Gibbons homestead. During Friday night some villains came to the house, outraged both girls, saturated their clothing with oil, set the house on fire and killed young Robert Gibbons, who was attempting to give the alarm. All three of the dead had their heads split open with a hatchet. No clue to the murderers. One thousand dollars' reward has been offered for their capture. Gibbons' house was burned to ashes, only the chimney left standing.

CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 26.—News from Ashland, Kentucky, indicates a continuance of the mystery in regard to the frightful murder committed at Gibbons' residence during Friday night. Citizens have appointed a committee of leading citizens to take charge of a fund collected for the arrest and conviction of the murderers and to direct its use. They have employed a detective, but no arrests are yet made and not even a definite suspicion placed against anyone, but it is thought from the fact that a crowbar and axe used in the murder belonged to the Gibbons family that the murderers must have been acquainted with the locality and also have known where they were asleep. The fire was discovered about 10 o'clock Saturday morning, and the body of one of the girls recovered very soon. The others were taken out before the house was burned down. Both girls were badly burned about the body. The boy was but little burned. It is thought that coal oil was poured on the girls, and the fire started, which burned out without setting fire to the house and that the murderers returned and set the house on fire a second time. The funeral of the victims took place today. A large number attended it. Nothing is yet heard of Mr. Gibbons, who left home five weeks ago.

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—The Texas and Pacific Railroad is now completed to a junction with the Southern Pacific Railroad at El Paso, Texas, and will be opened as a through line for business to points in New Mexico, Arizona and California about January 1st. Sleeping cars will be run on express trains from St. Louis to Deming without change, and third class sleeping cars will be run on emigrant trains with but one exchange to California.

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 28.—The mayor, with several city officials, including members of the Finance Committee, visited the jail to-day to confer with the auditor concerning his defalcation. He said that there were greater frauds than had yet come to light, but he could not give details. He assumed the entire responsibility for the defalcations and frauds.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 27. — The Honolulu press of December 10th, publishes the report of W. N. Armstrong, commissioner of immigration, who accompanied King Kalakaua in his recent tour of the world with a view of studying the immigration problem. The report treats of the question of East Indian immigration at great length, but decides against it, mainly on account of the debased moral and religious condition of the lower order of Indians and lack of stamina in the race. Japanese immigration, he thinks, might be of value; but the Japanese are not immigrating people. Malays are good for nothing as laborers. The question of Chinese immigration will be made the subject of a separate report. Portuguese immigration from the Azores is considered the best that can be obtained in sufficient quantity, and the appointment of a commissioner is recommended to reside at the Azores and look after immigration matters. General European immigration would be highly desirable, but it cannot be expected, as immigrants of that class seek homesteads, while Hawaii has nothing to offer them but contract labor. Island press editorials are devoted to a considerable extent to refutation of the charges made by American journals against its contract labor system and workings of the reciprocity treaty.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

SPOKANE FALLS, Dec. 26.—The coroner's jury to-day found Conductor Joseph Ellis and Engineer George Ellis of Engine No. 18, guilty of criminal negligence in occasioning the collision on the railroad near this city December 24th.

OREGON.

THE DALLES, Dec. 27.—R. F. Boynton was shot by his brother-in-law, T. N. Moore, seven miles east of Sherar's bridge over the DesChutes, last Friday morning, the ball taking effect about two inches below the breast bone and ranging to the right, and then inward to the abdomen. There has been a feud between the parties for over a year, and on Friday morning Moore says Boynton attacked him with a club and he fired in self-defense. Boynton is very dangerously, if not fatally wounded.

LAW AND ORDER.

MR. EDITOR:—SEEING A REPORT IN TODAY'S paper from the Superintendent of Police of the number of persons convicted during the past year of offences against the laws of the land we are very proud to notice that there have been so very few of our countrymen who have been guilty of breaking the laws.

From the figures given we see the total number of cases against whites was 322; total against Indians, 208; total against Chinese, 7—thus unmistakably showing that our countrymen are by far less given to breaking the laws than either white men or Indians. While not wishing to make any boast of the good conduct of our countrymen still, we think, as a matter of simple fair play we will be allowed to point out that the above exhibit of figures and facts is a sufficient answer to all our revilers who assert that Chinamen as a class have no regard for either law or order.

Yours, very respectfully,
THE CHINESE POPULATION.

That Shortlets has been a very bad boy lately.

That it must be pleasant to know that one is appreciated—even after death.

That a completo assortment of diaries for 1882 will be found at The Colonist stationery store.

That the Winnipeg Times crank thus touches upon the real estate fever which prevails in that city:

> Lots all around them,
> Countless in numbers.

THE ACCIDENT TO MR. HECKMAN.

Not Dead, but Seriously Injured.

(Special to The Colonist.)

YALE, Dec. 29.

On Sunday last while Mr. Heckman and Mr. Tuck were driving to Drynock from Spence's Bridge their team backed over the bank. On examination of their injuries by Dr. Tunstall at Spence's Bridge, where they had been taken, Tuck was found to have a bad scalp wound and a broken clavicle, while Heckman was more seriously injured about the head. On Tuesday evening Tuck's condition was considered good; but no opinion was expressed as to Heckman.

AGAIN A LUNATIC.—The unfortunate carpenter of the ship City of Brooklyn was brought down early in the week from Burrard Inlet and placed in the Marine Hospital here. In a fit of insanity he attempted to cut the throat of the first officer, a son of Capt. Patterson. The ship will leave without him as he is altogether too dangerous to take on board for a long trip.

THE HUDSON BAY COMPANY.

Proceedings at the Last General Meeting.

The Governor announced a dividend of £1 per share or £100,000, leaving a cash balance on hand of £70,000. The sales of realestate in Winnipeg had aggregated £961,600, with 600 lots still unsold. The steamer Diana, fitted with a refrigerating apparatus, had brought 35 tons of whole salmon from Hudson Bay and one half the cargo was sold at 2s. per pound. The quality of the fish was excellent. Five tons had been sent to Australia for sale. There is a good deal of prejudice in England about this salmon. The governor continued that in place of Mr. Lyall, lately deceased, the governor, deputy governor and committee had nominated Mr. Sandford Fleming, "a gentleman well known and respected in Canada, as those of you who are connected with the country must know. Mr. Fleming is by profession an engineer; he has surveyed a very large portion of the territories which formerly belonged to the Hudson Bay Company, but now belong to the Dominion government; and his local influence, which is considerable, will be found to be of very great advantage to the Company. Besides all this, he is a Canadian by domocile, and therefore would keep us here well posted in the affairs of the Company across the Atlantic. We are endeavoring to organize a good system for keeping shops in the various towns throughout the country, especially in Winnipeg, where we have spent considerable sums of money in erecting and opening new stores, and the result of the first month is very encouraging. I think they turned over at the rate of some £2,000 per week since they were opened." With regard to agricultural lands, he thought they might safely expect to have five million acres. With respect to the report that one of their agents had defrauded the Company, it was true; but he was happy to say that the amount misappropriated was at any rate under £1000. There had he expected been some carelessness on the part of a higher official.

The ballot then took place for the election of the officers of the company, the result of which was that the governor, deputy governor and committee were re-elected for the ensuing year, and Mr. Sandford Fleming was elected to act as a member of the committee.

It is said that Dr. McInnes, M.P., who has been in Ottawa for some time, has been unsuccessfully endeavoring to have the line of the Canada Pacific Railway deflected toward New Westminster. REDUCED RATES.—By the new arrangement, to go into effect Jan. 1st, 1882, messages from this city over the lines of the Western Union Telegraph Company will be charged as follows: To San Francisco, $1; to Nevada, $1.25; to States east, $1.50; which are reductions of 50 cents per message over rates heretofore. To no points in either Oregon or California will the rate hereafter exceed $1 for a message, and to many points it will be less. Half rate messages will be abolished, while night rates will be 25 per cent. lower than day rates. Local rates, to points elsewhere in the Territory, will be correspondingly reduced about the first of February. THE O. & C. RAILWAY.

Direct Communication with San Francisco.

The Oregonian reports that the Oregon and California Central railway will be built immediately. This will give Puget Sound a direct communication with San Francisco. The engineer in charge in an interview said: "Portland is going to be a great railroad center, just like Chicago, Indianapolis and Kansas City. The travel which centers here will naturally drift to San Francisco. People who come to Portland via the Northern Pacific, will return by the Central or Southern, and vice versa; and they will not discard a finely furnished sleeper in which they can make the trip of seven hundred miles in twenty-eight or thirty hours, for an ocean voyage of three or four days. Besides the Canadian Pacific is bound to come to Portland. If they don't, somebody will build to connect Portland with their terminus; and their passengers will not take the ocean voyage to San Francisco.

VAGRANCY.

John Mayberry was charged with begging alms and being a vagrant.

Supt. O'Connor stated that the prisoner was a perfect nuisance, begging whiskey whenever he could get it. He had obtained all sorts of things for his wife and had at once disposed of them for drink. Thought however that prisoner would leave the city if he had an opportunity of doing so.

Prisoner said he was not a vagrant; but he had begged a glass of whiskey only. He would promise on the word of a man that if let off he would leave the city in the afternoon. He was a stranger and his wife was insane; and had met with much trouble.

Remanded for a day on his own recognizance.

SOCIAL AT ROYAL OAK SCHOOL HOUSE.—A most agreeable reunion took place on Wednesday evening at the Lake district school house in aid of the funds of a Sunday school recently established there by M. S. Gray of this city. About twenty ladies and gentlemen went out in a large 'bus and met a well filled house of residents. Singing, music, recitations and a bounteous tea made up the programme, the result of which was a liberal contribution towards the fund for the purchase of a good library for Sunday school use. The school every Sunday afternoon is made attractive and several young men and boys who formerly went out shooting to pass away the day are now in attendance. Such a good work should meet with every possible encouragement.

THE WASHINGTON FARCE.

GUITEAU REMOVED TO THE DOCK

HE WRITES A CHRISTMAS LETTER ABOUT THE ASSASSINATION.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27—Guiteau came into court this morning looking paler than usual. He had not slept well. A man was placed in the cell near his who was suffering from a violent type of mania, caused by excessive use of morphine, and during the whole night his shrieks rang through the jail. Guiteau was annoyed and asked what was the occasion for such a riot. The keepers replied: "We have a crazy man there to-night." "Well," said Guiteau, "why don't you choke him and make him keep quiet, and not let respectable people be disturbed in this way by a miserable lunatic."

Dr. Cullender being on the stand Scoville put a hypothetical question which embraced the clause, "suppose the prisoner believed himself to be a partner with Jesus Christ."

Judge Porter protested against the question as blasphemous, and it would be a disgrace to the court, justice and a Christian nation to allow it to be entertained for a moment.

Scoville replied, that if no allusion could be made to what is claimed by the prisoner to be the actuating motive or influence that led to his act, then the whole defence would be swept away at a single stroke.

Porter proceeded to insist upon his view, and declared the time had come when in the name of the American people and on behalf of the government of a federal court, he felt it his duty to demand that the prisoner be removed to the dock.

Guiteau, spitefully—"Oh! you do, you big-mouthed Porter." Court officials sitting behind prisoner attempted to quiet him, when he wheeled around and snarled at one of them, "Will you mind your own business, or I'll slap you in the mouth, you fool!"

Judge Porter continued his remarks, and Guiteau again interrupted him and shouted, "Well, you had better mind your own business, Judge Porter!"

Judge Porter—That is my business here to-day, and, your honor, I must insist on my motion of Saturday that the prisoner be removed to the dock.

Scoville arose to speak, when Judge Cox said: "Let me know first if the counsel desire to be heard upon the motion to remove prisoner to the dock."

Judge Davidge then proceeded to speak upon the motion. He believed the time had come when every one present was perfectly satisfied the prisoner was perfectly sane in respect to his behaviour, and amenable to the same rules as other prisoners.

Scoville said he would assent to any proposal which might be deemed necessary. No one had suffered more than he had from the prisoner's behavior.

Guiteau, interrupting—"Well, it's because you are a jackass in this case. If I had a decent counsel I would not have any occasion for remarks. You are doing well enough on your theory, but your theory is altogether too narrow. You haven't brains enough for this case."

Corkhill insisted upon removal to the prisoner's dock, and removal from around him of the special policeman who were not regular attendants of the Court, and that he should be kept in the dock with no other special protection than is accorded any other prisoner.

Guiteau, trembling with anger or apprehension, shouted: "You want to shoot me do you, Corkhill? You can't convict me, so you want to get me shot! You might as well hang me up outside and tell men to shoot me. I tell you," raising his voice almost to a shriek, "God Almighty would curse you, sir, if I was put in a dock and shot, you miserable wretch, you."

Scoville, with much feeling, protested against the proposition of the District Attorney, which could not be understood by any one other than as an invitation to all who heard it to shoot the prisoner if the opportunity was offered. After a most impressive argument by Judge Porter, in which he repelled the reflection of the counsel for defense upon the District Attorney, Judge Cox gave his opinion stating that no certain measure to silence the prisoner could have been taken that would not have abridged his constitutional rights, whereas it had been deemed, and he thought rightly, that the prisoner's behavior and utterances would prove the best means of determining his mental condition. He ordered the prisoner removed to the dock, which was then done.

On Christmas morning Guiteau sent a long letter to the press which commenced: "Christmas greeting, 1881, by Charles Guiteau: To-day is Christmas, and I greet the American people with merry Christmas." He goes on to contrast his experience in the present holiday season with that of previous ones. He said the Lord had put this work on him and he did his best. "I suffer in bonds as a patriot, but I am in honorable company. Washington was a patriot. Washington led the armies of the revolution through eight years bloody war to victory and glory. General Grant led the army to victory and glory, and to-day the nation is prosperous and happy. I am well satisfied with the Deity's conduct of this case thus far, and I have no doubt but that he will continue to further direct to the end that the public may sooner or later see the special providence in the the late President's removal. Nothing but the political situation last spring justified his removal. Had Jefferson Davis and a dozen or two of his co-traitors been shot dead in January, 1861, no doubt our rebellion never would have been. Gen. Grant suppressed one war, and Providence and I saved the nation. As time advances the public will appreciate this fact more and more. I have no doubt as to my spiritual destiny. I have always been a lover of the Lord, and whether I live one year or fifty I am his as a matter of fact. I think I shall live to be President. The Deity, to my entire satisfaction, knows that I simply executed his will, and I know it, and many people are beginning to see it, and they see it more and more as time advances. I put up my life at Deity's inspiration and I have not come to grief yet; and I have no idea I shall because I don't think I am destined to be shot or hung, but that is a matter for Deity to pass on and not me. Whenever my exit is made from this world I have no doubt but my name and work will go thundering down the ages, but woe unto the men that kill me, privately or judicially."

MONTREAL, Dec. 15.—The Geddes-David assault case was continued today, the lawyers for the crown and the defence occupying most of the time in their addresses to the jury. The judge having summed up the jury retired at 7 o'clock. At ten the court reassembled and the jury being called out brought in a verdict of "not guilty" on the counts of the indictment, but guilty of common assault only, at which there some applause on the part of Mr. David's friend. The judge then proceeded to pass sentence, and in so doing briefly animadverted upon the circumstances attending the assault. He then inflicted a fine of $200 and bound over the defendant to keep the peace for one year with security for four thousand dollars, the defendant furnishing half and two sureties of one thousand each.

The machine shops of the New Brunswick railway at St. Andrew's were destroyed by fire on Monday night. The loss is estimated at $60,000.

Well Thought of, Mr. Editor

It has been intimated that the citizens of Victoria feel much indebted to T. W. Pierre for saving so many people from dying. The judges at the late successful agricultural show acted very wisely in giving Pierre a diploma for dyeing. If they were on Guiteau's case he would certainly have to die without a diploma. The difference between Guiteau and Pierre is that Pierre wants to dye and Guiteau does not want to die.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

AS THE STEAMER "WESTERN SLOPE" HAS stopped running rather suddenly, I wish to explain to the public that, having no connection at New Westminster and no freight offering for the latter place either up or down, I was reluctantly compelled to withdraw the boat at once or suffer a loss by keeping her running. I now beg to return my sincere thanks to my friends and the public generally for the liberal patronage extended to me during the past season, and hope for a continuance of their favors the ensuing season, which I expect to commence early in the spring. In the meantime arrangements will be made for a light draught steamer to connect with the Slopp on the river, so that freight and passengers may be taken through to Yale without delay early the ensuing season.
